

Turkey Dinner: Donation Slips Donation slips are now on a table in the narthex. Take a slip and sign the sheet with what you are donating. Also, Gin Lounsbury is looking for volunteers to help with every aspect of the dinner. Sign up on the volunteer list to help. If you have any questions, speak with Gin.

Bake Sale: As part of our Turkey Dinner day, Women's Ministry will sponsor a bake sale. Proceeds will go toward Women's Ministry mission and service projects. Please consider baking your favorite treats for the sale.

The Lutheran Hour: Next week's Lutheran Hour message will be given by Lutheran Hour speaker Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler on the theme "Light of the World" Jesus is the Light of the world. However, He sometimes keeps that light out of the visible range. We can't see it, but it changes what we see. Listen on WLEW 1340AM Sunday at 11:10 am, or listen through The Lutheran Hour website: lutheranhour.org.

Kitchen Cleaning: Every year a group of women gather to deep clean the kitchen in preparation for Turkey Dinner. This year they are cleaning on Tuesday, March 18th at 9:00 am. Additional help is much appreciated.

Online Giving: Giving through the Vanco app is now available. Scan the QR code to Good Shepherd's Vanco page to designate your givings. Speak with Amy for questions or help.

Attention All Women

Mark your calendars for a special luncheon celebrating all women on Sunday, May 4th.

The event committee is looking for wedding dresses from all generations to display. If you have a dress that you would like to share at the luncheon, speak with Beth McCallum.

An Evening With Jesus: 2025 Lenten series

A person's last words are important, to be sure. They are a farewell address, the thoughts that person wants us to keep at the center as we move forward without him or her.

At the Last Supper, Jesus left His Church a rich message of encouragement and hope. For our Wednesday Lenten Services we will hear this farewell address of our Lord and each week we will consider one of its themes.

Join your brothers and sisters in faith as we gather with Jesus to receive His Words which are as powerful and important today as they were when He first spoke them.

Easter Flowers: Enclosed in this week's bulletin is an order form to place flowers in the sanctuary on Easter Sunday. This year we are purchasing the plants through the Cass City Promise group that raises money to gift each Cass City graduate with a scholarship. The deadline to order is by next Sunday: March 16th.

LWML Mites: Remember to keep filling your Mite Boxes™ for LWML grants. Can we help meet the goal of funding the mission work of sharing Jesus? If you need a box, some are on the narthex table.

Quilting: The quilters will meet this Tuesday at 10:00 am to tie quilts for local shelters and Lutheran World Relief. If you would like to help by cutting or sewing squares for the quilt tops at home, speak with Sharon Rockwell or Joann Guinther.
